

Karen's Super Simple /shən/ Chart

IF:	-tion	-sion	-cian
the base word ends in t	operation donation the base word ends in s		depression tension it's a job that ends with -ic or -ics			magician statistician it has mission in it (the root mit/miss)		admit/admission permit/permission it says /zhən/		erosion confusion the root ends in t	rejection contraction motion the root ends in s (other than miss)		propulsion secession it's preceded by n		expansion dimension there's no easily discernable reason	carnation lotion ambition

Additional notes:

All vowels before /shən/ are long except i.
The stress is always on the syllable before /shən/.